One week left to submit.

Don't delay — the deadline to submit abstracts to AAIC® Advancements: Toward Health Equity in Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias \(ADRD\) is only a week away. Held October 30-31, 2023, in San Antonio, Texas and online, Toward Health Equity in ADRD will advance conversations around health equity among investigators at all career stages to strengthen the research community.

Submit an abstract for the chance to give an oral or poster presentation highlighting your work at this conference planned in partnership with the National Institute on Aging (NIA). Topics of special interest include themes in the NIA Health Disparities Research Framework, especially:

- Behavioral factors.
- Environmental factors.
- Biological factors.
- Sociocultural factors.

Submit your abstract by August 1, 2023, 11:59 p.m. ET.

Submit your abstract now.

Join the Alzheimer's Association International Society to Advance Alzheimer's Research and Treatment \(ISTAART\), and as an exclusive member benefit, you will receive an extended abstract submission deadline through August 4.

Becoming a member is easy. Join ISTAART, a global network more than 10,000 scientists, clinicians and dementia professionals strong.
